WORLD BOOK DAY

Reading a story at bedtime is a relaxing way to end the day so this year we would like to celebrate World Book Day by holding a pyjama day. Children can come to school in pyjamas to spend the day reading and celebrating books in our comfy PJs! Please also bring a favourite bedtime story to share in class. The theme for WBD 2025 is 'Get Ready to Read Your Way'. There are loads of resources online and the £1 book tokens will be given out on the day. Visit worldbookday.com for more information.

Internet Safety Day

This year's theme of focussing on "too good to be true" is about protecting yourself and others from scams online' It focuses on scams online and how young people can protect themselves from being scammed.

Please see the fantastic link below from the NSPCC for guidance on how to support your child with technology at different ages to having a conversation about it.
