Football – Last Friday our year 3 and 4 children had a fantastic evening of football with our friends from East Brent. The children had great teamwork, determination and sportsmanship. Thanks to all the families support and encouragement.

Griffins Trip – On Monday the Griffins class had an amazing day at the Somerset Kingfisher Award Scheme. They discovered how wheat gets from fields to shops, learnt about lifecycles and made some Cerviche.

Happy Half Term

Wishing everyone a wonderful half term break. We look forward to welcoming everyone back to school for our final term on Monday 1st June. Throughout June the children will complete a number of end of year activities which help us support and assess their progress to date and plan for the year ahead. Please support us in ensuring attendance next term is the very best it can be.
